Re: United States v. Patrick Patterson
21 Cr. 313 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

I write with the government's consent, requesting a minor modification of Mr. Patterson's curfew to accommodate his present work schedule.

Currently Mr. Patterson is being supervised by Pretrial Services, and is in the location monitoring program. He is permitted to be out of his home between the hours of 8AM and 11PM. We would respectfully request by this letter, that his permissible hours out of his home be modified to 5AM to 12AM to accommodate two shifts of work as a roofer. Mr. Patterson is a member of The Local 8, Roofers Waterproofers Union and is working, and has been offered additional work, but his curfew is preventing him from working on several well paying projects.

Accordingly, we would most respectfully request that the Court modify Mr. Patterson's curfew, as requested above.

The Court's consideration is greatly appreciated.

Granted.
So ordered.
